Subject: SPECIAL Lambina Gem OFFER 13 Jan 2012

Hi Everyone

Today I have a magnificent $1,500 Lambina ounce of opal to offer you. This is quite old stock. I was expecting that I'd be selling it to a lovely French friend of ours but he has decided that he has enough opal on hand at the moment, he is very busy at other things so his misfortune becomes your good fortune.

There are seven stones which makes them only about $200 each which is a magnificent price for such an ounce. In fact when this opal was priced your American dollar was worth much more than the Australian dollar and today the Australian dollar is worth more than yours. So that means just on the exchange rate you are getting about a 30% discount.

There is very little mining going on in Lambina at the present. In fact I haven't seen a parcel of rough opal from Lambina in the past year. I can highly recommend this ounce to you and look forward to hearing from you as you secure this magnificent parcel of gems.

Kind regards

Murray Willis
