Hi Folk

Americans I do apologise but our 50oz Lambina Offer went out whilst you were asleep and three of the four 50oz parcels sold straight away to Australians but they might be asleep when you get this one.

#1 grade is 12oz of very bright Lambina which has 2.5oz of Dark Base that will cut some gems. Many of the other stones can be described as small stones or even chips, there are 12oz at $150/oz for $1,800. I would consider splitting the parcel if it would help. I have no doubt that the black opals cut from the 2.5oz which are part of the 12oz parcel will pay for the whole grade.

#2 grade is 14oz at $125/oz $1,750, there are beautiful purples, reds, golds and greens and I see about half a dozen small black opals. Most of these stones are larger than grade #1 but of course they are not as bright.

We have Soldier's Memorial Day tomorrow so if you don't get an answer straight away please excuse us. We will answer your emails in the same order we receive them as always.

Kind regards

Murray
